Attend an event and learn how you can support survivors, take action to help your community and be part of the movement to end violence.

March 31

Yards for Yeardley
8 a.m.–3 p.m., Tempe, Sun Devil Fitness Complex, West Field
Sun Devils join together to run or walk over 1 million yards to honor Yeardley. Sponsored by Team One Love, individual and team yards will be recorded throughout the day and the team collecting the most yards will be eligible for an award.

April 3

Consent and Beyond
11 a.m.–3 p.m., Tempe, Hayden Lawn
Join Sun Devil MVP and several other clubs and organizations for the kickoff to Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Learn about campus and community resources and participate in fun, educational activities to receive greens.

April 4

The CounterAct Convening: Centering the Arts in Sexual Violence Prevention
10 a.m.–3 p.m., Tempe, Memorial Union, Arizona Ballroom
In this interactive and inclusive event, we will collaborate with faculty, staff and students in embodied theater and dance to create a performance in practicing bystander intervention and survivor support.

Public Transport Forum
6:30–6 p.m., Tempe, Memorial Union, Room 242
Ever thought about how sexual violence can prevent sustainable behaviors such as using public transportation? Join us for a solutions-oriented discussion with ASU Parking and Transit! The event aligns with the missions of Sexual Assault Awareness Month and Earth Month to address progress for both.

April 6

Take Back the Night Phoenix
5–9 p.m., Downtown Phoenix, Civic Space Park
Join us for our 15th year of Take Back the Night Phoenix, featuring survivors sharing their stories of sexual assault, domestic violence and trafficking. Candlelight vigil to provide outreach and support, a candlelight vigil honoring survivors and a rally and march through U of A.

April 7

Devils in Disguise
6–11 a.m., Tempe, La Mesita Site
Sun Devil MVP is partnering with A New Leaf to offer ASU students the opportunity to serve at the La Mesita site. Visit changemarker.asu.edu/programs/devils-disguise to sign up for the Sun Devil MVP and A New Leaf project.

April 10

Mirror Memoirs
6–8 p.m., Tempe, Memorial Union, Ventana C, Room 241
Nationally-recognized survivor, educator, storyteller and activist Amanda Eller will share her journey of breaking free of silence, healing and tapping from our stories as a tool for collective healing and organizing to end rape culture. Join us for a presentation of Amanda’s latest project, Mirror Memoirs, an on and off campus project centering the narratives, healing and leadership of LGBTQ survivors of color in the movement to end child sexual abuse.

April 13

Partner Yoga Consent Workshop
3:30 p.m., Tempe, Sun Devil Fitness Complex, Small Gym A
This workshop explores fun, beginner-friendly partner yoga poses. Participants will learn how to communicate openly with their partner, express their own needs, threes in front touching or advancing in a posture, and coordinate timing and transitions. Being a fitness to practice with or find a partner at the event!

April 16

Healthy Relationships - Trigger Words
11 a.m.–2 p.m., Tempe, Memorial Union Patio
Visit the tabling event to learn about healthy relationships and trigger words.

April 18

Navigating the Gray Areas
6–8:30 p.m., Downtown Phoenix, Civic Space Park
Reconnecting to other ASU campuses, Westward Ho, Concho Room
The era of #MeToo has generated many questions regarding appropriate behavior in the workplace and harassment. During this event, students entering the workplace, both inside and outside of academia, will explore questions while providing activities to help students think in nuanced ways about the spectrum of sexual violence. A panel of professionals will lead a discussion on policies, handling difficult situations and engaging in dialogue in the workplace.

April 19

No More Secrets
5–7 p.m., Tempe, Secret Garden
An open mic event for musicians, poets and survivors who want to share their stories. Through storytelling, learning how each person interprets their story can help individuals begin to write their own.

April 23

Supporting Survivors: A Workshop for Survivors and Their Loved Ones
7–9 p.m., Tempe, Student Pavilion, Smilin Ballroom
Learn how to support survivors on their healing journey. Explore what to say, understand common post-traumatic experiences and discover the characteristics of support.

April 25

Denim Day
All Day, All Locations
Denim Day is an international day of survivor support. Founded in the 1990s after a woman was blamed for sexual assault by her boyfriend, this event has been usefully named around to stand up against victim blaming. Wear denim to show your support.

Undone: Tied Together
12–11:55 p.m., and 7–10 p.m., Tempe, James Turrell Skyspace: Air Apparent, Rural and Terrace
Undone: Tied Together is a student-led performance celebrating participatory engagements, theatre, studio art and action art in service of imagining a world without sexual violence.

For more information and a complete list of events visit: eoss.asu.edu/mvp/events