

El Concilio

2024-2025 Guidebook

Table of contents

- 4 ASU charter
- 5 Mission statement
- 6 Welcome from the facilitator
- 8 Member organizations
- 10 Greek-lettered organizations
- 14 Fraternity and sorority life governing councils
- 16 Signature events
- 17 Connect with El Concilio
- 18 Key resources
- 19 Get involved

A woman in a vibrant pink and rainbow-striped traditional Mexican dress is dancing in a stadium. She is wearing a large, colorful shawl and a matching headscarf. The background shows a large crowd of people in a stadium setting.

ASU Charter

“ASU is a comprehensive public research university, measured not by whom it excludes, but by whom it includes and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities it serves.”

Mission Statement

El Concilio, an umbrella organization, seeks to unite Latinx/e, Chicanx/e, and Hispanic student clubs and organizations at ASU to represent our interests, advocate for our needs, and promote awareness and celebration of our culture within the ASU community. We aim to support our emerging student leaders and offer social, cultural, academic, and political service events and programs to make an impact across all campus locations.

Welcome from the Facilitator

On behalf of El Concilio, I extend a warm welcome to all of you. This coalition represents our collective interests, advocates for our needs, and strives to promote awareness and celebration of the rich culture within the ASU community. At El Concilio, we are dedicated to supporting the growth of our emerging student leaders. We offer a wide range of social, cultural, academic, and political service events and programs designed to make a positive impact across all campus locations. As you begin your journey at ASU, we encourage you to explore the opportunities and resources available through us. We are here to foster a sense of belonging, provide a supportive community, and empower you to thrive academically, culturally, and personally. We look forward to meeting each of you and embarking on this exciting chapter together. Welcome to Arizona State University, and welcome to El Concilio.

Facilitator: Elizabeth Diaz Vera

Member organizations

ASU clubs gather communities around sports, culture, academics, advocacy, and more. El Concilio represents the interests and unification of 20+ of clubs and organizations under the coalition's umbrella across all campus locations. Several of our member organizations are highlighted below. To learn more about each organization, visit Sun Devil Sync.

Association of Latino Professionals for America (ALFA)

ALPFA AT ASU is committed to the professional development of its members. They look to accomplish the association's goal to "Connect Latino leaders for impact" by facilitating professional development workshops, hosting social and professional networking events, and fostering a culture of internal development among students.

Hispanic Business Students Association (HBSA)

The mission of the Hispanic Business Student Association is to prepare our members to be future leaders, serve our communities, promote diversity and create a progressive learning environment. We strive for continued personal, professional, and academic growth, which occurs through education, experience, and leadership opportunities.

Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE)

The purpose of SHPE de ASU is to bring a sense of community to the Hispanic engineering students at Arizona State. We also seek to increase the number of Hispanics graduating with STEM degrees. We provide a network system which encourages students to persist and become role models in the Hispanic community.

Hispanic Honor Society at ASU

The Hispanic Honor Society at Arizona State University-West is a student-run organization dedicated to serving the interest and welfare of ASU students, while also providing opportunities for social change, personal growth, and development. It is an organization of students committed to developing leadership, honoring service, character, and scholarship.

Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlan (M.E.Ch.A)

Our mission is to bring about the educational, cultural, economic, political, and social empowerment of our community, aiming to liberate colonized individuals. We are committed to preserving our cultural identity and resisting assimilation. Additionally, we actively promote, support, and unite with organizations, movements, and clubs that share MECHA's mission.

Brazilian Student Association at ASU (BRASA)

BRASA is a non-profit organization led by students who wish to foster Brazilian culture in universities abroad and create impact platforms. At its core, BRASA has proactivity, excellency, meritocracy, and commitment to Brazil.

Spanish Graduate Student Association (SPAGrad)

SPAGrad shall represent all students admitted to the graduate program in the Spanish Department of ASU. SPAGrad will provide a voice for graduate student concerns and will promote better-informed decisions regarding life within the Spanish Department.

National Association of Hispanic Journalists (NAHJ)

Our mission is to increase the number of Latinos in the newsrooms. We also work toward fair and accurate representation of Latinos in news media.

Chicano/Latino Law Student Association (CLLSA)

The purpose of the Chicano/Latino Law Student Association is to advance the status of Hispanics in the social, educational, and legal areas; to promote and encourage the education of the Hispanic law student, and to sensitize the legal community to the unique needs of the Hispanic community.

Los Diablos

Los Diablos is the official Latino chapter of ASU Alumni and is an affiliate of the ASU Foundation. Los Diablos has been raising funds to provide financial assistance and support to outstanding college students of Arizona who attend and graduate from ASU. In addition to providing tuition scholarships, Los Diablos scholars are assigned to a board member who serves as a mentor, advocate, and university liaison for the academic year.

Salsa Club at ASU

We, as a club, want to encourage students to be part of the dance community within and beyond the university. The Salsa Club at ASU wants to enable students to be comfortable and confident in their pursuit of exploring the art of dance.

Hispanic Organization of Latin Awareness (HOLA)

The purpose of this organization shall be to promote the sense of belonging to an affiliated heritage as well as recognize and create awareness about the differences between the different Latin cultures. Furthermore, we seek to build a community for polytechnic students to empower members in their personal, academic, and career goals.

Greek-lettered organizations

Traditionally known as social Greek-lettered student organizations, fraternities and sororities at Arizona State University are centered on four values that drive our community forward: Learn and Grow, Build Relationships, Give Back and Do the Right Thing. As a collective of over 75 organizations, their mission is to create the premier fraternity and sorority experience in the country.

Community members succeed academically, are elected to leadership roles in student government, dedicate thousands of hours to community service, raise hundreds of thousands of dollars to charitable organizations, and build campus spirit, pride, and tradition through major campus events. Most importantly, fraternity and sorority life provides the opportunity to establish bonds with dedicated, talented and diverse people on campus and be a part of a global network of alumni that will last a lifetime.

Visit Fraternity and Sorority Life at ASU to learn about all the Greek organizations and the Governing Councils which include:

- Interfraternity Council
- Multicultural Greek Council
- National Association of Latino Fraternal Organizations Council
- National Pan-Hellenic Council
- Panhellenic Association

* The National Pan-Hellenic Council, also known as the “Divine Nine,” is the coordinating body for the historically African-American fraternities and sororities at Arizona State University.

Multicultural Greek Council

The Multicultural Greek Council (MGC) is the governing body for culturally based fraternities and sororities at Arizona State University. The MGC exists to develop and maintain fraternity life and interfraternal relations between the culturally based fraternities and sororities on campus and the greater Arizona State University community. The MGC through its programming efforts, encourages scholastic achievement among its member organizations and individuals, provides a forum for discussion and to develop action strategies regarding issues relevant to the MGC community, and coordinates semester activities and service-related events to promote cooperation and harmony among member organizations and strive to promote cultural awareness.

National Association of Latino Fraternal Organizations

The National Association of Latino Fraternal Organizations (NALFO) serves as the governing body for the historically Latino/a fraternities and sororities at Arizona State University. Established in 1998 to promote the advancement of Latino/a fraternities and sororities, the first local NALFO council was piloted at Arizona State University in 2003. NALFO's purpose is to promote and foster positive interfraternal relations, communication, and development of Latino/a fraternal organizations through mutual respect, leadership, honesty, professionalism, and education.

Sigma Delta Pi (Theta Epsilon Chapter)

Sigma Delta Pi is the only honor society devoted exclusively to students of Spanish in four-year colleges and universities. Not only the largest foreign-language honor society in existence, it is among the elite as attested by its membership since 1966 in the Association of College Honor Societies (ACHS), the nation's only certifying agency for college and university honor societies. Sigma Delta Pi offers a growing scholarship program exclusively for its active members with annual undergraduate awards for study in Spanish-speaking countries and offers research grants for graduate students, as well as annual awards recognizing outstanding academic achievement and service. Theta Epsilon Chapter organizes social and cultural events and offers leadership and community service opportunities to active members.

Omega Delta Phi Fraternity, Inc. (Epsilon Chapter)

Omega Delta Phi Fraternity Inc. was founded on November 25, 1987, at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas, by seven visionary individuals who sought to promote leadership, academic excellence, and community service while providing a support system for young men in pursuit of higher education. The Epsilon Chapter was established on the campus of Arizona State University in 1992 and became the first multicultural fraternity at ASU. Their fraternity has grown to represent all types of races; that has been the evolutionary vision of their Founders. With this evolution, they welcome the growing opportunities to expand the United States and beyond. Their Brotherhood possesses the strongest of desires to positively affect as many lives as possible.

Sigma Lambda Gamma National Sorority, Inc. (Pi-Delta Chapter)

During the fall of 1989, the foundation of Sigma Lambda Gamma National Sorority, Inc. began when a group of collegiate women recognized the need to form an organization that provided empowerment to women of all cultural backgrounds at the University of Iowa. Sigma Lambda Gamma National Sorority became Incorporated at Arizona State University. Est. May 15, 2011 at ASU. Sigma Lambda Gamma strives to be the premier organization committed to providing a mechanism of empowerment to all women. We pride ourselves in fostering growth in leadership and Sisterhood through our five founding principles of academics, community service cultural awareness, morals & ethics, and social interaction.

Pi Lambda Chi Latina Sorority, Inc. (Theta Colony)

Sisterhood, education, unity, and the preservation of Latina culture were all reasons why Pi Lambda Chi was founded at the University of Colorado at Boulder on March 5, 1994. The Theta Colony was incorporated at Arizona State University on November 18, 2017. At Arizona State University, Pi Lambda Chi Latina Sorority, Inc. has established a strong sisterhood and an educational support network for women on campus. They have worked diligently to preserve Latina/o culture and history while promoting education and community service within the surrounding

Latina/o communities.

Kappa Delta Chi Sorority, Inc. (Lambda Chapter)

Kappa Delta Chi Sorority, Incorporated was established at Texas Tech University by four friends who recognized the need to unify and promote leadership among Hispanic women at the university. Since the Lambda Chapter was incorporated at Arizona State University on December 4, 1994, Kappa Delta Chi has grown to include women of various ethnicities and cultures and has inducted other chapters throughout the country. All with the common premise of joining Kappa Delta Chi because of the scholastic, philanthropic, and ethical standards that it cultivates and encourages. These are the standards that we emanate through sisterly friendship and servitude to each other and to those around us.

Lambda Theta Nu Sorority, Inc. (Alpha Lambda Chapter)

Lambda Theta Nu Sorority, Inc. was founded on March 11, 1986, at California State University, Chico. Since then, the purpose of Lambda Theta Nu Sorority, Inc. has been to open doors of opportunity to the Latinas of our community. Their primary focuses are academic excellence and meeting the needs of Latina women in higher education. Lambda Theta Nu Sorority, Inc. also promotes the advancement of Latinas through various campus activities and community services and provides an environment for personal growth within a unit of sisterhood. The Alpha Lambda Chapter was incorporated at Arizona State University on March 28, 2009, and since then they have worked to provide their members with exposure to resources for continued growth.

Lambda Sigma Gamma Sorority, Inc. (Alpha Alpha Chapter)

Lambda Sigma Gamma Sorority, Inc. was founded on the campus of Sacramento State University on October 24, 1986. Founder Linda V. Fuentes ignited the organization in the first year by recruiting 26 founding mothers. The 27 Founding Mothers realized that the campus did not offer an organization that met the needs of women from minority backgrounds. They were interested in forming an organization that would not only act as a family away from home but would also bring together women from various backgrounds and incorporates the principles of self-improvement, scholastic excellence, civic responsibility, and leadership. The sorority was established at Arizona State University on November 3, 2013, and throughout the years they have truly embodied their motto, unity through sisterhood.

Sigma Lambda Beta International Fraternity, Inc. (Chi Beta Chapter)

Sigma Lambda Beta International Fraternity Inc. is a historically Latino-based fraternity with a multicultural membership. We have over 150 entities at different colleges and communities stretching from coast to coast.

Our mission is to nurture and further a dynamic, values-based environment that utilizes our historically Latino-based fraternity as a catalyst to better serve the needs and wants of all people.

They are the brothers of the Classy Chi Beta (XB) Chapter at Arizona State University and were founded in December of 2001. Sigma Lambda Beta International Fraternity Inc. has continuously exemplified its principles of brotherhood, scholarship, community service, and cultural awareness.

Tau Psi Omega Fraternity, Inc. (Alpha Chapter)

Tau Psi Omega Fraternity was founded on the campus of Arizona State University in the Fall of 1996. Recognizing the importance of a close family structure, Tau Psi Omega seeks to implement this structure into their fraternity and the community. As a community service-based fraternity, it is their goal to bring the community together by using the family values that are present within the brotherhood. Within Tau Psi Omega Fraternity, they seek to reflect the rich cultural diversity that is present in the world we live in today. It is with this in mind that Tau Psi Omega actively pursues brothers of all races and backgrounds in an attempt to better understand our own cultures as well as the cultures that others could bring to our collective table.

Keeping these goals in mind, Tau Psi Omega will continue to pursue these dreams as well as new dreams that will come with a new century of honor and service to our community.

Lambda Sigma Upsilon Fraternity, Inc. (Wahati Chapter)

Lambda Sigma Upsilon Latino Fraternity, Inc. was founded at Rutgers University by 20 Latino students on April 5, 1979. Entering the scene as “a Latino Social Fellowship” in 1978, LSU members gathered to stand against the lack of academic attention Latinx and minority students were receiving. They banded together under their motto and four goals, Latinos Siempre Unidos or Latinos Always United, academic excellence, cultural awareness and diversity, brotherhood, and being role models to the community. These sentiments effectively sealed different races and ethnicities in a multicultural brotherhood. After the group became a Greek-lettered fraternity, word started to spread and LSU found themselves with more chapters and more brothers. By 2010, the Wahati chapter touched down on Arizona State University’s campus.

Gamma Zeta Alpha Fraternity, Inc. (Pi Chapter)

Gamma Zeta Alpha Fraternity, Inc. was founded on December 3, 1987, at California State University, Chico in Chico, California. It is a Latino-interest fraternity that emphasizes Latino culture and the success of Latino males in higher education. Although Gamma Zeta Alpha Fraternity, Inc. is Latino by tradition, membership in the fraternity is open to all college males and includes members from various ethnicities. Following its founding principles, the fraternity encourages and creates programs that assist disadvantaged and low-income communities. Its goals are to promote scholarship for Latinos in higher education while instilling a sense of pride in Latino heritage. The fraternity was established at Arizona State on May 24, 2008.

Fraternity and Sorority Life

governing councils

College Panhellenic

The College Panhellenic is the governing council for 14 National Panhellenic Conference sororities and 2 associate member sororities on campus. The College Panhellenic exists to develop and maintain fraternity life and interfraternal relations between the sororities on campus and the greater Arizona State University community..

Interfraternity Council

The Interfraternity Council is a self-governing body representing the member fraternities at Arizona State University. The IFC strives to promote excellence in all aspects of fraternity life. The IFC works to better the Arizona State University fraternity community and represents the member fraternities to the greater campus community. IFC assists with fraternity recruitment each semester and serves as a clearing house for all issues related to the fraternity community. The Interfraternity Council at Arizona State University is a North American Interfraternity Conference (NIC) chartered IFC.

The Divine Nine

The National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC)

The National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), also known as the “Divine Nine” is the coordinating body for the historically African-American fraternities and sororities at Arizona State University. ASU is home to eight of the Divine Nine organizations. Originally formed in 1930 at Howard University, the purpose of the NPHC is “unanimity of thought and action as far as possible in the conduct of Greek-letter collegiate fraternities and sororities, and to consider problems of mutual interest to its member organizations.” NPHC honors the historical spirit of community service, cooperation, cultural consciousness, scholarship, servant leadership, and unity..

Signature events

Through campus programs and community involvement, El Concilio aims to uplift diverse communities, foster an inclusive environment, and build community at ASU. Throughout the academic year, both El Concilio and its member organizations plan and host signature events across all four campus locations celebrating heritage, creative expression and inclusion.

Diablxs Unidxs

To welcome students to the fall semester, El Concilio hosts a welcome event for new and returning students, staff, and faculty towards the end of August. This event features engaging activities, food, and member organizations.

📅 Last week August

Hispanic/Latinx Heritage Month

El Concilio observes our heritage month by celebrating the histories, cultures, and contributions of Chicax/e, Latinx/e, and Hispanic individuals as well as groups who identify with and strive to create a more inclusive environment for these communities.

📅 September 15 - October 15

Aventura Cultural

As El Concilio's culminating heritage month event, this celebration provides the opportunity to learn about and engage in Latin culture through discussion, food, live music, art, literature, activities and dance.

📅 Early October

Día de los Muertos

A day to remember those we have lost, this annual event showcases traditional elements including altares, ofrendas, and skull decorating. We intend to provide an immersive experience for all students and community members to not only enjoy the festivities but also to learn more about our communities and culture as a way to raise awareness.

📅 Late October/
Early November

El Colympics

Friendly outdoor competition for the coalition, member orgs, and greater community to come together and compete in short games, activities, and various sports. This event promotes wellness, team-building, and fun. The winning team gets a special prize.

📅 March

Viva La Drag

El Concilio, in collaboration with the Rainbow Coalition, celebrates and highlights the intersectionality between Latinx/e and the 2SLGBTQIA+ communities. This interactive event features student organization tabling, a drag show, and a panel with our drag performers. We always bring in a special guest from Rupaul's Drag Race!.

📅 April

Connect with El Concilio

Office Location: Tempe Campus, Student Pavilion, Room 221B

 @asuelco

 eoss.asu.edu/cultural-connections/get-involved/el-concilio

 asuelconcilio91@gmail.com

 asu.campuslabs.com/engage/organization/el-concilio

Key resources

Make the most of your ASU experience and meet your academic and personal goals. From providing opportunities to discover your career interests to learning the keys to leading a healthy lifestyle for a lifetime, ASU is here to help you succeed academically and socially. Take advantage of all the resources available to you and the larger community.

- ASU Counseling Service
- Financial Aid & Scholarship Service
- University Housing
- Sun Devil Dining
- Los Diablos ASU Alumni Chapter
- Multicultural Communities of Excellence
- Student Success Center
- TRIO Student Support Services
- Sexual and Relationship Violence Program
- Cultural Connections
- Global Education office
- Sun Devil Fitness & Wellness
- Student Accessibility & Inclusive Learning Services (SAILS)
- Intercampus Shuttles
- Dean of Students
- Student Advcacy and Assistance
- Student Code of Conduct
- Univeristy Technology Office
- ASU Health Services
- Career & Professional Development Services
- Multicultural Greek Council (MGC)
- Council of Coalitions (CoC)
- Student Employment
- ASU Athletics
- University Academic Success Program
- Transfer Student Resources
- ASU Family

Get involved

Make friends, have fun, and learn outside of the classroom. Immerse yourself in ASU traditions, join or start your own student organization, participate in programs and activities, serve your community, or advance your idea on how to make the world a better place. Explore your options and enjoy Sun Devil Life!

- Career and Professional Development Services
- Fraternity and Sorority Life
- Changemaker Central
- Student Employment
- Council of Coalitions
- Student Organizations
- Cultural Connections
- Student Unions and Centers

Best of luck, Sun Devil!

