

Dear Student,

ASU Counseling continually seeks new ways to service ASU students. New services and support are always being added and existing services improved. As a result, I am pleased to announce the following, effective August 15, 2016:

- First appointments remain free of charge.
- Appointments after the first session to discuss service options or gather more information will be free of charge.
- All ongoing services will now cost a flat $15 per session, a decrease in services fees of up to 60% on previous services.
- Any student with financial need can receive a fee-waiver for all services.

ASU Counseling remains available to you regardless of ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, age, country of origin, religion, ability, or financial situation, person concern, or whether you have had counseling before. We know that counseling is effective for many different personal concerns. If you would like to speak to a counselor, please call us at 480-965-6146 or just stop-in to any campus counseling center.

For more information, please visit our website at <https://eoss.asu.edu/counseling>.

If there's anything I can do for you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Aaron Krasnow".

Aaron Krasnow, Ph.D.
Associate Vice President
ASU Health and Counseling Services
aaron.krasnow@asu.edu