

career guide

career worksheet: needs and wants

ASU Career Services offers a comprehensive on-line Career Guide designed to help you evaluate career options, learn about internships and launch your career. The Career Guide includes detailed information about cover letters and resumes, interviewing, business etiquette, portfolios, graduate school admission processes, effective job and internship search strategies and more. Visit The Career Guide at asu.edu/careerguide.

It's Personal: This is your personal Career Worksheet. You can use this worksheet to track what you identify as most important to you in each of the assessment categories. Your answers will help to narrow your choices as you explore potential majors and careers. You may have blanks or the entire form may be filled. Use this tool to consolidate some of what is important to you and assist in your major and career exploration.

Self-Assessment Section	Results and Responses	Why is this important? How does it relate to what I want in a major or career?	How important is this to me, on a scale of 1 to 100?
Needs and Wants
Time: Do you have a particular time line to get a job, make a decision and finish school?
Geography: Do you need or want to live in a certain area?
Financial: Do you have a certain salary range you want or require?
Cultural: Are there any special cultural traditions that will influence your choice?
Significant Others: Is there anyone else that you need consider in making your decision?
Legal: Are there any legal issues affecting your options?
Work Environment: Is there a specific physical setting you desire in your work? i.e.: outdoors, office, nautical, etc.			