

Welcome to ASU! We are excited you are joining the Sun Devil Family.

As Sun Devils, we pride ourselves on supporting the success of others, in working together to succeed and in caring about one another's well-being. As a new member of the Sun Devil Family we want you to know about our values, our expectations and the support available to help you achieve your goals.

To help you get started and to support you along the way, ASU students created A Community of Care. This video will cover a lot of information, some of which you may already know and some of which may be new to you. Watch all of it. It is important information that all ASU students should be aware of (and a training all are required to complete).

Thank you for taking the time to both inform and position yourself for success at ASU.

Go Devils.
