

Race, Arts & Democracy

Feminist Futures in the BORDERLANDS

Join us

Panelists:

Ana María Alvarez
Choreographer, Dancer

Ana Teresa Fernández
Visual Artist

Carolina Aranibar-Fernández
Multi-media artist

Yadira De La Riva
Theatre artist

Mary Jenea Sanchez
Visual Performance Artist

Moderators:

Michelle Telléz, PhD
University of Arizona

Casandra Hernandez
Mellon Foundation

Virtual panel discussion about art, performance, gender, and borders.

We feature five artists who have participated in the Binational Arts Residency to hear their perspectives on the possibilities for intersectional feminist futures in the borderlands.

Feminist Futures in the Borderlands

Virtual Zoom
Wednesday, September 30
6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Free | Online | Open to the Public

Register:
csrd.asu.edu/raceartsdemocracy

Co-Sponsorship:
ASU Museum Art,
Performance in the Borderlands,
Cala Alliance, Mexican American Studies U of A