Join Malaika Serrano, Vice President of Diversity and Inclusion at WorldStrides, and Drew Ross, Associate Director in the ASU International Students and Scholars Center, as they explore the Black Lives Matter (BLM) from global perspectives. During this interactive session, they will discuss the impact of dual global pandemics – Covid19 and racial injustice – on the BLM movement and draw connections to Global Education and active allyship. All are welcome to attend the virtual event!

This event is co-sponsored by ASU International Students and Scholars Center and ASU Study Abroad

Questions? Contact cci@asu.edu

Registration is required and “seating” in this ZOOM is limited
RSVP Today

ccebllacklivesmatter2021.eventbrite.com