Summer To-do's:

1. Become familiar with MyASU

Visit asu.edu/myasu101 to learn about the online tools and resources available to students. Always remember to check your official ASU email address for important communications from the university.

2. Establish your budget

Compare your expenses to the financial aid resources you have available so you can plan accordingly. Check out the online budget template at students.asu.edu/financialaid/budget.

3. Request final transcripts

Submit your official final transcript from your high school or previous colleges (indicating high school graduation and date) to:

Admission Services
Arizona State University
PO Box 870112
Tempe, AZ 85287

4. Pay tuition and fees

After you register for classes, review your current student account through My ASU. Paper billing statements are not mailed. Charges will be posted in July.

5. Review the Arizona State University Student Code of Conduct

The Student Code of Conduct can be found at asu.edu/srr/code. Make sure you complete the Community of Care course through MyASU or at eoss.asu.edu/communityofcare.

6. Complete MyASU Task List

Be sure to complete all task list items on your MyASU before Welcome and the start of the semester.

Your Sun Devil Experience Starts Here

housing.asu.edu

On-campus living at ASU is centered on residential colleges that place you next door to classmates who share your major or career interests. Residential colleges provide supportive and immersive communities, programming, events and amenities tailored to your major, including: tutoring, advising and academic resources. Additionally, residential staff are prepared to help you build the foundation for your next four years at ASU.

Confirm your housing preferences based on your campus and major through MyASU

Start your application and complete your housing license agreement.

Search for your roommate assigned to the same campus and residential college community.

Complete your room and meal plan selection based on your campus and academic major.

What to pack: most commonly forgotten items.

- 1 Toilet paper
- 2 Shower curtain
- 3 Full-length mirror
- 4 Laundry basket

Parking and Transit Services

Review parking permit and transportation options

You have many options available to fit your transportation needs. From a parking permit to campus shuttles, ASU has the service you need. Connect with transit options through Twitter and Facebook or visit parking.asu.edu.

Parking on campus

ASU Parking and Transit Services provides convenient parking accommodations at various locations around each campus at a range of prices to meet your needs. If you have a permanent or temporary disability, ASU disabled-accessible parking permits are available. For more information, visit parking.asu.edu.

Public transit

Sun Devils may ride public transportation at a discount of up to 80 percent and enjoy access to off-campus destinations throughout the greater-Phoenix area. Visit valleymetro.org for maps, routes and schedules. The Student U-Pass costs $150 per academic year and is valid from August to May. Visit cfo.asu.edu/transit.

Review campus shuttle routes

ASU Parking and Transit Services provides free, wi-fi connected intercampus shuttles to connect students, faculty and staff to each campus. Follow shuttles with real-time GPS tracking, access current schedules, and report delays or issues:

links.asu.edu/shuttles

Gold shuttles run between the Tempe and Polytechnic campuses. Maroon shuttles run between the Tempe, West and Downtown Phoenix campuses. Shuttle riders receive water, towels and other items on days when the heat index reaches extreme levels. For more information, visit cfo.asu.edu/shuttles

Register your bike

More than 15,000 people bike to and from campus each day. We strongly recommend registering your bike with ASU. Bike registration provides record of ownership, helps authorities in locating the owner of a stolen or recovered bike and may act as documentation for your insurance carrier. Visit bike.asu.edu.
