Visit teachforamerica.org/teach-with-tfa/ta-and-you to learn more about how Teach For America corps members make a difference in schools across the country.

- Connect with the Teach For America Recruiter to learn more about the application process, program details and ways to engage on campus.
  - Veronica Aguilar
  - TFA Campus Recruiter
  - veronica.aguilar@teachforamerica.org

- Visit Changemaker Central on campus changemaker.asu.edu - to learn about ways to engage and volunteer on campus or in the community.

- Increase your knowledge around the state of education and social justice issues by reading relevant news articles, attending appropriate community and seminars.

- Attend an Impact 101 informational session or event at ASU. Check out eoss.asu.edu/makeyourimpact for more details on upcoming workshops and events.

- Register to complete a job shadow experience with Teach For America. Log on to bit.ly/jobshadowASU for more information or to sign up.

Start to identify ways to develop key skills which make you the most attractive candidate for Teach For America. Important skills include: organization, problem-solving, flexibility, teamwork and persistence.

- Get involved with the student organization, Advocates for Education, and consider taking on a leadership position.

- Volunteer in low income communities.
  - Volunteer @ ASU - volunteer.asu.edu
  - Hands On Greater Phoenix - handsongreaterphoenix.com

- Take courses that enrich your understanding of social justice issues, particularly as they relate to education.

- Apply to be an intern with Teach For America.

- Attend a summit or other campus events hosted by Teach For America.

- Engage and network with former Teach For America corps members living in the Phoenix area, attending grad school or working at ASU to gain helpful insight into what it is like to serve. You may also be able to set up a time to visit a Teach For America classroom. Contact veronica.aguilar@teachforamerica.org for more details.

- Connect with an Advisor at ASU Career Services in order to get your resume reviewed and complete a mock interview. Be sure to work with your Advisor to master the STAR method for answering behavioral interview questions.

- Complete your Teach For America application prior to one of the following dates: August 21st, September 10th, October 30th, January 15th and March 4th. You can submit your application as early as your Junior year. The earlier you submit your application the better!

- Attend a Teach For America interview prep session offered by ASU Career Services.

- Work with your TFA Campus Recruiter to learn tips on how to best prepare for the interview process.