Arizona State University is educating the next generation of global leaders. Roughly 10,000 international students study at ASU, many of whom choose to return to their native countries for internships or to start their careers.

Throughout their time at ASU, students learn and develop essential skills that make them top candidates for your organization including critical thinking, professionalism, leadership and collaboration skills.

Our Employer Relations team is here to help you discover and maximize ASU’s talent with recruiting plans tailored to your organization’s hiring needs.

ASU Rankings

- #1 public university chosen by international students
  - Institute of International Education

- Top 10 for graduate employability
  - Global University Employability Survey 2016

- 135 countries represented at ASU.
  Top 5 countries of origin of ASU international students:
  - China
  - India
  - Saudia Arabia
  - Kuwait
  - Republic of Korea

- #1 in Latino graduates (compared to all Pac-12 institutions)

- #5 in the nation for producing the best-qualified graduates
  - The Wall Street Journal

Connect with us to get started: employers.careerservices@asu.edu