

Public Allies Arizona Roadmap

- Connect with the Public Allies Arizona Recruiter to learn more about the program and application process.
 - Elsbeth Pollack
Program Coordinator
602.496.0192, elsbeth.pollack@asu
- Join a student or community group that focuses on social issues, volunteering and service, or diversity and inclusion.
- Join Public Allies or other community groups in a Day of Service: Make a Difference Day, MLK Jr. Day, Cesar Chavez Day, and Global Youth Service Day. Email the recruiter for more information.
- Attend a Public Allies Community Space Day. Email the recruiter for more details.
- Hear the experiences and network with Public Allies at the Public Allies Presentations on Impact and Graduation in May and June of each year. Email the recruiter for more details.
- Visit Changemaker on your campus – changemaker.asu.edu

- Enroll in a Service Learning class at ASU.
- Connect with ASU's Project Humanities.
- Pursue a leadership role in a student group that focuses on social issues, volunteering, or diversity and inclusion.
- Increase your experience by completing an internship or leadership program.
- Volunteer in the community in an area that interests you. Find opportunities and organizations by working with your Public Allies recruiter and using the following links:
 - Volunteer @ ASU - volunteer.asu.edu
 - Hands On Greater Phoenix – handsongreaterphoenix.com

- Complete the Public Allies application, which opens in February of each year.
- Engage and network with currently serving Public Allies and alumni of the program in the Phoenix Community to gain insight into what it is like to serve.
- Make an appointment with a Career Advisor to have your resume reviewed.
- Connect with the Public Allies recruiter to learn tips on how to best prepare for the interview process.
- Attend an interviewing workshop or webinar with Career Services.

Explore

Engage

Achieve