Women’s Health

ASU’s Women's Health Department is staffed by Board-Certified Nurse Practitioners who offer:

- Routine gynecological visits/exams including PAP testing and breast exams
- Contraception including Pill/patch/ring, Depo-Provera, Nexplanon, IUD insertion, and Diaphragm fitting
- Evaluation and treatment for a full range of gynecologic problems including abnormal bleeding, hormonal/menstrual irregularities, pain, menopause symptoms, all breast concerns, and postpartum depression
- STI screening, evaluation and treatment including performing pelvic/vaginal exams as needed, and ordering other lab tests as needed/recommended by providers
- GYN procedures including Colposcopy, endometrial biopsy, anal PAPs, biopsy, treatment of genital warts
- HPV vaccination
- Transgender health care and hormone therapy
- A full range of sexual health education and information
- A full range of general health education, including sexual health and sexual violence prevention
- Sexual Violence Aftercare which can also include referral for a forensic nurse exam provided at a fully equipped center with specialized personnel all trained to assist victims of sexual violence.

Schedule your Women’s Health appointment through your patient portal by clicking here or by calling 480-965-3349. We look forward to being your Women's Healthcare partners.